When the panel is formed from persons whose names are not drawn as jurors, a challenge may be taken to the panel on account of any bias of the officer who summoned them, which would be good ground of challenge to a juror. Such challenge must be made in the same form, and determined in the same manner, as if made to a juror."

"SEC. 176k. If, either upon an exception to the challenge or a denial of the facts, the challenge is allowed, the court must discharge the jury so far as the trial in question is concerned. If it is disallowed, the court must direct the jury to be impaneled."

"2. For cause."

"SEC. 176n. It must be taken when the juror appears, and before he is sworn to try the cause; but the court may for cause permit it to be taken after the juror is sworn, and before the jury is completed."

"SEC. 176o. A peremptory challenge can be taken by either party, and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court must exclude him."

"SEC. 176oo. Upon a trial by jury, each side shall be entitled to six peremptory challenges. A waiver of a challenge by either party shall preclude such party, except by consent of court, from thereafter challenging peremptorily any juror then in the jury box, and the remaining challenges of such party shall be limited to jurors thereafter called."

"SEC. 176p. A challenge for cause may be taken by either party. It is an objection to a particular juror, and is either—

"1. General—that the juror is disqualified from serving in any case; or

"2. Particular—that he is disqualified from serving in the action on trial."

"SEC. 176q. General causes of challenge are:

"1. A conviction for felony;

"2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by law to render a person a competent juror;

"3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind or organs of the body as to render him incapable of performing the duties of a juror."

"SEC. 176r. Particular causes of challenge are of two kinds:

"First. For such a bias as, when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this code as implied bias.

"Second. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror in reference to the case, or to either of the parties, which will prevent him from acting with entire impartiality and without prejudice to the substantial rights of either party, which is known in this code as actual bias."

The challenge may be oral, but must be entered in the minutes of the court or of the reporter."
